

Daniels Fund Ethics Initiative at UCCS - Student Ethics Ambassador Program

Program requirements:

1. Eligible students must be an enrolled UCCS Undergraduate or Graduate Student during the award period (fall semester 2022/spring semester 2023).
2. The student must remain in good academic and behavior standing during award period (i.e. not on probation, no academic and student conduct violations).
3. The student must be eligible for student employment (enrolled half time). This is a student employment position that is paid monthly and adheres to all student employment guideless to include the maximum hours policy (no student employee can work more than 25 hours per week). This is a 5 hour per week position.
4. The student must complete required assignments (approximately 85 hours):
 - Ethics Ambassador Orientation
 - Share DFEI activities and events with students
 - Assist or attend two DFEI events
 - Work with assigned UCCS Ethics Fellow to organize and execute one educational activity on behalf of DFEI
 - Serve in an advisory capacity for DFEI at UCCS

Name: _____

Current Class Standing (Junior, Senior, etc.): _____

Major: _____ College _____

UCCS email address: _____

Phone Number: _____

Application Checklist

- Application.
- Statement of Consideration (500-word statement detailing why you are interested in this program, how you will support the program, and what you hope to gain from this experience. If you intend to work with a specific Ethics Fellow, please include this in your statement).
- Faculty/staff nomination (if you do not have a nomination, an interview will be scheduled if you are selected for consideration).
- Completed applications emailed to rmccann@uccs.edu by April 18th, 2022.

Signature: _____ Date: _____

As a program applicant, I will enter information that is true to the best of my knowledge. I agree that DFEI Collegiate Program at UCCS College of Business may release information to donors and selection committees including but not limited to directory information, financial aid information, academic information, and copies of essays and résumés. It could also be used for CU publications or for news release purposes. If selected to receive this opportunity I agree to uphold the UCCS Student Code of Conduct at all times, and I acknowledge that any awarded opportunities may be canceled through the judicial affairs process if I am found to be in violation of the code.